The Contract

When two people meet an agreement made,
the terms of the deal the plans are laid.
Each one gives their seal by the grip of their hand,
on their word of honor they take their stand.

These days there are contracts all written out,
so there is nothing to dispute about.
But if a person won't stand on their word understood,
A piece of paper won't make it good.
